Why you NEED Guitar Coaching?

Here's the actual challenge you are facing as a self-taught guitar player... the REAL reasons you are not progressing in your guitar playing any more...

Teaching yourself to play electric guitar to a high level is borderline impossible for the vast majority of people. It is extremely difficult to learn by yourself to play at the level of the amazing professional players. VERY few people have managed to do it by themselves - and for each one that did manage, several hundreds, if not thousands others have failed...

A great guitar coach will understand and respect your musical vision, and will guide you to build a strong musical foundation that will enable you to make continuous progress. He will also make practicing efficient and productive, as well as help you make the best choices in everything related to your musical development.

If there is a gap between where you are now and where you want to be in your music, then there is room for coaching. Get what you want out of music by using the structure, experience, support, and tools of a skilled guitar coach.

Have you had Electric Guitar Lessons in the past?

Guitar Lessons and Guitar Coaching are really not the same thing. Guitar lessons are GREAT for total beginners - for someone who is JUST picking up the instrument for the first time. Here's a quick video that accurately clarifies the main differences between Electric guitar Lessons and Electric guitar Coaching:

Getting high quality guitar coaching by a professional guitar coach is the single most important thing you can do to ensure you will progress continuously in your guitar skills. Nothing else even comes close. Without it, you will almost certainly fall into a rut, playing the same old licks for years and years, with no discernible progress. Most notably, the problem will not manifest slowly over time - in most cases, you just stop making progress and no matter what you do, you do not get any better... I've personally witnessed this hundreds of times!

To really develop your playing, you need to have continuous access to 3 different things:

1. Good Quality Training Materials
2. Consistent Feedback mechanism on your practicing mechanics
3. Coaching supervision, to help identify & correct your "blind spots" - not just the "weak points" of your playing that you know about

Once you get these 3 elements handled, your results will skyrocket!

So, how EXACTLY does the Elite Guitar Coaching system work?

The Elite Guitar Coaching system is a brand-new guitar coaching program I have personally developed after coaching guitar players professionally for over 25 years.

The aim of the system is to be able to offer ALL the advantages of the private guitar lessons, while at the same time increasing retention of information, making the learning process more affordable and also more convenient.

The Elite Guitar Coaching are TAILOR-MADE to each student's specific needs, strengths and weaknesses - EXACTLY as we would be doing if you were sitting across me in my Private Coaching Studio.

Throughout the coaching procedure, there is continuous feedback from me to you.

You send me an audio or video recording of a playing example and I will reply with an audio or video of my own, with my comments on what you did well and what you need to improve and correct. This consistent feedback mechanism is the MOST important thing in developing your skills - in effect, it quadruples the rate of improvement in the vast majority of students!

Other things to note

Finally, some important things to keep in mind:

If that includes becoming a part-time or full-time professional musician, we will definitely work together towards that direction. But if you want to be "just" a really good guitar player -
- You DO need to be motivated to develop your playing and able to follow specific instructions!
- You STILL need to put in the time and work towards your goal - but you can be sure your time is not wasted and is always put to great use
